Schools may also register as many students as they like in the D4 best ball tournament. These students will not be eligible for the team banner or individual awards. The winning best ball foursome will receive mini bannerettes.

(This is an estimated cost; all schools will be invoiced following the tournament.)

Substitutions can be made when you register, including the make-up of your team but you must identify the foursome that will play for the D3 team championship.

Staff Officials – Each coach will accompany a foursome and act as the official scorer for that group. This person will tally and hand in the "official" score card at the end of the tournament.
